Law-Related Volunteer Opportunities

Legal Services Organization of Indiana—always looking for volunteers:
Call Merta Hudson at [812] 339-7668. Many of our students have found this a unique and valuable experience. http://www.lsoi.org/stc_site/.

Middle Way House Domestic Violence Volunteer:
Programs including legal, childcare, crisis line; many other opportunities. This is a great organization. For more information: Call 333-7404.
<http://www.bloomington.in.us/~mwhouse/volunteer.htm>.

Monroe County Prosecutor's Office Victim Assistance Volunteers:
Help crime victims ease their trauma by explaining how the criminal justice system works and what to expect to happen with their case. Knowledge of the system is preferred but not required.
Call Theresa Deckard or Sarah Begle at 349-2670. <http://cgi.hoosier.net/cgi-bin/cgiwrap/uwmonroe/viewentry?id=142>.

Victim-Offender Reconciliation:
This program offers mediation for crime victims and offenders. Volunteers facilitate meetings between victims and offenders and maintain contact during the restitution process. Training and on-going support provided.
Call (812) 336-8677. <http://www.bloomington.in.us/~mediate/index.htm>.

Community and Family Resources Department:
Volunteers are needed for the following projects:
Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission, Commission of the Status of Women, and Council for Community Accessibility.
Call Craig at 349-3430.
